LESOTHO PLANNED PARENTHOOD ASSOCIATION

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

PROFILES

Leadership • Governance • Accountability

AUGUST 2026

Maseru, Lesotho

Chairperson: Mrs Nthatisi Kasane (CAL)

Mrs. Nthatisi Kasane (CAL) is a seasoned Chief Financial Officer with over 20 years of experience overseeing financial strategy and reporting within State-owned Enterprises, Civil Society Organisations, Development Partners and Regional and International Networks. She has a proven track record in enhancing corporate governance, development and implementation of risk management frameworks, driving financial restructuring, human resources management and ensuring compliance with internal controls, national laws, accounting standards and more specifically the Public Financial Management Act of Lesotho.

She is an expert in implementing robust internal controls, automating finance functions, and achieving significant cost reductions through process optimization and particularly managing highly stringent budget constraints. She is skilful at navigating complex stakeholder environments, including government ministries, boards, and regulatory bodies to ensure long-term fiscal sustainability. Her technical expertise include taxation, audit, financial management, management accounting and risk management. She has served on different governance structures including Lesotho Institute of Accountants (LIA), Lesotho Planned Parenthood Association (LPPA) and Care for Basotho Association (CBA).

Hobbies and Interests

Provision of voluntary services to advance charitable community services and passionate about enhancing economic growth through SMMEs and entrepreneurship.

Treasurer: Tokelo JohnPaul Rakubutu

Mr. Rakubutu, is a Strategic Financial Leader for Lesotho's HIV Response

He serves as Finance Manager at the National AIDS Commission (NAC), where he leads the financial stewardship of the national HIV and AIDS response. With a career spanning banking, government, and the private sector, he brings extensive expertise in organisational business strategy development, planning, grants and contracts management, taxation, policy development and implementation, governance, audit and risk management, budgetary control and forecasting, financial planning and reporting, and employee benefits management, including pension and provident fund administration.

A Chartered Accountant by profession, Mr Rakubutu holds a Chartered Accounting qualification from the Centre for Accounting Studies and is currently completing a Master of Business Administration (MBA) at Botho University in Botswana. He is an active member of the Lesotho Institute of Accountants (LIA) and a member of the Institute of Risk Management South Africa (IRMSA), reflecting his commitment to professional excellence and continuous development.

His technical proficiency spans key legislative and regulatory frameworks, including the Public Financial Management Act 2011, Pension Fund Act 2019, Income Tax Act 1993 and its Regulations, Labour Code Order 1992 and Labour Act 2024, International Public Sector Accounting Standards (IPSAS), International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS), Procurement Act 2023, Audit Act 2016, and the 10th Amendment Act of the Lesotho Constitution.

Beyond his role at NAC, Mr Rakubutu serves as a member of the Business Risk Management Specialist Committee at the Lesotho Tourism Development Corporation (LTDC). He is also a Vice President and Council Member of the 49th LIA Council. Additionally, he sits on the Board of Directors for Sekhametsi Properties and chairs the Governance, Audit and Risk Committee, further demonstrating his leadership in governance and financial oversight.

A seasoned finance professional with a sharp analytical mind and unwavering commitment to accountability, Tokelo Rakubutu continues to play a pivotal role in strengthening financial systems and governance frameworks that underpin Lesotho's development agenda.

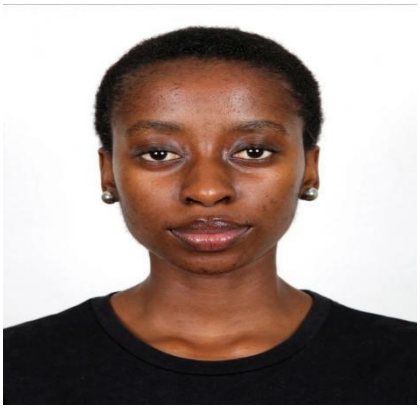
Member: Matheatsie R. Moshebi

Mr. Matheatsie R. Moshebi is an experienced community and development practitioner with a strong background in community development, project management, resource mobilisation, youth development, administration, data and compliance, and marketing. He holds a Bachelor of Arts and has undertaken professional training in Project Management, Community Development and Resource Mobilisation through the Institute of Development Management (IDM).

He has served as a Lay Counsellor at the Lesotho Planned Parenthood Association (LPPA) from 2022 to 2025, as an Executive Member of the Mohale's Hoek Sub-Branch, and as a National Executive Member of Mophato oa Morija Youth Guild for eight years. His leadership experience also includes serving as a youth coach, youth leader and football coach, as well as founding LISEMA Youth and Community Development Consultancy. He is committed to promoting good governance, accountability, transparency, sound financial management, strategic planning, youth development and community empowerment. Through his experience in community structures and professional settings, he brings strong collaboration, stakeholder engagement and responsible decision-making skills, underpinned by a commitment to professionalism, integrity and excellence in service to the community.

Youth Representative: Ms. Limakatso Mohohlo

Ms. Limakatso Mohohlo is a passionate Community Advocate and Leadership Practitioner committed to youth empowerment, mental health advocacy, gender equality, reproductive health, and community development. She has experience organizing awareness events, engaging young people, facilitating social dialogue, and supporting initiatives that promote the well-being and rights of communities.



She is an active member of the UNESCO Youth Desk, a member of the SunriseRehabilitation Centre Coalition for Substance Use Disorders and Mental Health, and a volunteer with the Youth Action Movement (YAM) at the Lesotho Planned Parenthood Association (LPPA). She has also joined a Mental Health Club in collaboration with Therapy Hub Inc., focused on suicide prevention and promoting mental well-being. Limakatso is recognized for her strong communication, empathy, active listening, leadership, and community engagement skills, and is passionate about using her voice and leadership to contribute to meaningful social change.

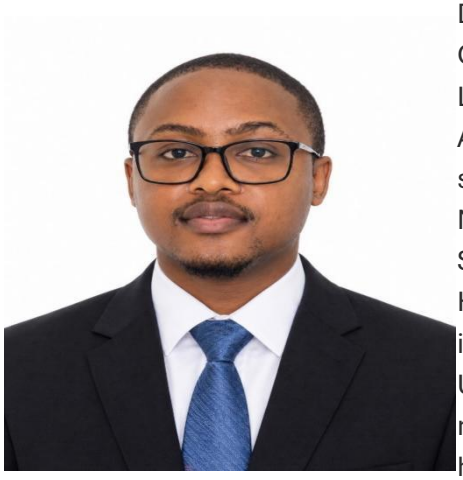
Member: Ms. Senate Precious Seisa

Senate Precious Seisa is a passionate youth leader, advocate and marketing professional with over eight years of volunteer experience and two years of board-level leadership. She is committed to youth empowerment, meaningful youth participation, SRHR advocacy, and community development.

She serves as the LPPA Youth Action Movement (YAM) Chairperson and youth representative, championing the voices of young people and strengthening their participation in leadership and decision-making. Through LPPA and IPPF, she has represented Lesotho both locally and internationally, contributing to youth leadership, advocacy, innovation and SRHR initiatives.

With a strong marketing background, Senate brings expertise in communication, branding, community mobilisation, stakeholder engagement, digital platforms, and strategic campaign development. As a certified Non-Profit Organisation Board Member, with training in Network and Advocacy, she combines professional skills with leadership and governance experience to help strengthen LPPA's visibility, partnerships, youth engagement and impact.

Experts: Dr Simphiwe Howard Ndaba, MD, FC Clin. Onc.



Dr. Simphiwe Howard Ndaba Dr. Simphiwe Howard Ndaba is a Clinical Oncologist and oncology health-systems professional in Lesotho, holding a Doctor of Medicine degree from the Latin American School of Medicine (ELAM), Havana, Cuba, and specialist training in Clinical Oncology from the Zambia College of Medicine and Surgery (ZACOMS). He currently practises at Senkatana Oncology Clinic and Queen 'Mamohato Memorial Hospital, consults for various hospitals and public health institutions, and serves as a part-time lecturer at the National University of Lesotho (NUL). His expertise spans clinical oncology, radiation therapy, multidisciplinary cancer care, cancer control, health-systems strengthening, and oncology workforce development.

Dr. Ndaba serves as Lesotho's Country Counterpart for the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) technical cooperation project INT6066, supporting efforts to strengthen cancer control and radiotherapy services. He is also a Member of the Board of Directors of Vitality Plan Lesotho, contributing to governance and strategic oversight. His professional interests include breast, cervical and prostate cancer, palliative care, oncology outcomes, and health-systems research. In addition to his work in clinical teaching, mentorship, and capacity building, he was named Best Graduating Trainee in the Clinical Oncology Specialist Training Programme at ZACOMS in 2026 and is a member of the European Society for Medical Oncology (ESMO) and the American Society of Clinical Oncology (ASCO).

Expert: Mr. Thabo Mazibuko

Mr. Thabo Mazibuko is a governance, finance, risk and data professional with leadership experience spanning consulting, telecommunications, banking, and international development. He currently serves as Head: Balance Sheet Management, Data C Regulatory Reporting at Nedbank Lesotho, where he leads the Bank's capital management, liquidity and interest rate risk strategies, regulatory reporting, and balance sheet optimization functions, while driving enterprise-wide data governance and strategic data transformation initiatives that strengthen decision-making, regulatory compliance and business performance.

Recognized for combining strategic insight with analytical rigour, Thabo has built a distinguished career advising executive management and governance forums on financial management, risk oversight, organizational performance, and institutional sustainability. Prior to joining Nedbank Lesotho, his experience includes Forensic Technology and Discovery Services at Ernst C Young in Texas USA, IT Audit Specialist at Econet Telecom Lesotho, Risk Manager at FNB Lesotho, and serving as Associate Auditor at UNESCO in Paris France. Thabo's career has been defined by a commitment to building strong institutions through effective governance, financial discipline, intelligent use of data and robust risk management. His leadership focus centres on servant leadership that translates strategy into measurable outcomes that create sustainable value for stakeholders.

Thabo holds a Master of Science in Finance from the University of Aberdeen where he graduated with Commendation, and a Bachelor of Business Administration with a double major in Finance and Management Information Systems from the University of Oklahoma where he graduated with Special Distinction. He also holds an international Baccalaureate Diploma from Waterford KaMhlaba UWCSA.

LEADERSHIP PHILOSOPHY

"Sustainable impact is achieved when strong governance, quality data, financial stewardship and ethical leadership come together to enable better decisions that build stronger institutions that create lasting value for the communities we serve